

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE 31ST ANNUAL ASSEMBLIES OF THE EAST AFRICAN COMMUNICATIONS ORGANIZATION (EACO)

22nd – 26th June 2026 – Kigali, Republic of Rwanda

The East African Communications Organization (EACO) presents its compliments to its Members and Partners and has the honour to announce that its 31st Annual Assemblies will be held from 22nd to 26th June 2026 in Kigali, Republic of Rwanda.

EACO expresses its sincere appreciation to the Rwanda Utilities Regulatory Authority (RURA) for graciously offering to host this important regional event on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Rwanda.

The 31st Annual Assemblies will be convened under the theme: “Future-Ready Regional Connectivity: Securing and Strengthening East Africa’s Digital Ecosystem.”

The EACO Assemblies namely: Assembly of Regulators, Assembly of Postal Operators, Assembly of Telecommunications operators and Assembly of Broadcasting Operators will bring together international and regional organizations, policymakers, legislators, regulators, industry leaders, development partners, and other key stakeholders. Participants will deliberate on strategic issues shaping the future of regional connectivity, digital resilience, and inclusive digital transformation within the East African Community.

Preparations for the Assemblies are well underway, led by the host RURA in collaboration with EACO. EACO hereby invites its Members and partners to participate in these important meetings.

A formal invitation including detailed information on the venue; programme, registration process, logistics, and side events will follow in due course.

EACO kindly invites all Members and Partners to reserve the dates and looks forward to their active participation in making the 31st Annual Assemblies a success.

Done at Kigali, 14th January 2026.

Caroline Koech
Executive Director
East African Communications Organization
(EACO)

Evariste Rugigana
Director General
Rwanda Utilities Regulatory Authority
(RURA)

